

SUNDAY-SCHOOLS MAKE REPORTS

Monthly Meeting of Baptist Association Held in Petersburg.

WILLIAM J. ALFRIEND DEAD Government Engineers Revising Chart of the James River.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., November 14. The regular monthly meeting of the Baptist Sunday School Association of Petersburg and vicinity was held with the Mataoca Church Sunday afternoon, President J. P. Stephenson in the chair.

A well selected program was rendered by the Mataoca school, and an interesting address on "The Boy Problem" was delivered by Otis Hinnant, of South Richmond.

The reports from the various schools for the past month were as follows: Average Attendance: First Church, 250; Second Church, 255; West End Church, 370; Ettrick Church, 112; Mataoca Church, 56; Grove Avenue, 53.

The reports generally show a remarkably fine per cent of attendance. During the month fifty-two new scholars were received into the schools, and the sum of $145 was collected, and the sum of $100 was collected.

William J. Alfrend, one of Petersburg's most honored citizens, died quite suddenly shortly before 5 o'clock this morning at his residence on Hinton Street, he was found prostrated in his office and was taken to his home, where his condition so much improved that it was not considered serious.

Mr. Alfrend was in his seventy-third year, was born in Petersburg, and had lived here his entire life. For fifty years he has served as ticket and passenger agent of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company in this city, and during that long period enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his employers to the fullest degree.
